Eternity is the dimension of God's own life. It has no beginning and no end, no parameters or margins or boundaries. Eternity is what is meant by the affirmation that God is eternal, to formulate a coherent doctrine of God's relationship with time. Eternity is not something separate that happens later, it is just a continuation of yesterday and last year.

God and eternity - Wikipedia

The idea of eternity as it relates to God is an important concept in theology. Theists say that God is eternally God; his being is an instance of his essence. He is no more and no less eternal than he is God. The Other (the uncreated creator, the transcendent) is not God; the uncreated creator is a distinct entity. He has his existence in the Other, and is a manifestation of the Other.

What is the relationship between God and time? | GotQuestions.org

The Lord does not count time as we do. He is above and outside of the sphere of time. God sees all of eternity's past and future. He is timeless, he is ever-present. He is eternally always. A second is no different from an eon; a billion years pass like seconds to the eternal God.

God, Time, and Eternity: The Coherence of Theism II: Eternity. Those who think about God and time are thinking deeply. Those who think about God and time are thinking about the coherence of theism, about what is meant by the affirmation that God is eternal, to formulate a coherent doctrine of God's relationship with time. Eternity is not something separate that happens later, it is just a continuation of yesterday and last year.

SUMMA THEOLOGIAE: The eternity of God (Prima Pars, Q. 10)

As God, although incorporeal, is named in Scripture metaphorically by corporeal names, so eternity though simultaneously existing in time, so it is. When we say that God is eternally God, we mean that he is always God. God is eternally God, not in his being, but in himself. When we say that God is eternally God, we mean that he is forever God. God is eternally God, not in his being, but in himself. When we say that God is eternally God, we mean that he is forever God. God is eternally God, not in his being, but in himself. When we say that God is eternally God, we mean that he is forever God.

God, Time, and Eternity - Time - CS Lewis Society of California

God's eternity has been a subject of much philosophical debate. Some believe that God exists outside of time and does not experience it as we do, instead existing in an eternal now. All present, and all the moments inherent in the present, exist simultaneously. Some believe that God exists outside of time, but exists in time at all times and has always done so. God is timeless, but his actions have a temporal aspect.

What is the relationship between God and time? | GotQuestions.org

The Lord does not count time as we do. He is above and outside of the sphere of time. God sees all of eternity's past and future. He is timeless, he is ever-present. He is eternally always. A second is no different from an eon; a billion years pass like seconds to the eternal God.

God, Time, and Eternity - Time - CS Lewis Society of California

God’s eternal quality is often misunderstood. It is often thought that God exists outside of time, that God is timeless. However, God is not timeless. God is eternally God, not in his being, but in himself. When we say that God is eternally God, we mean that he is forever God.

What is the difference between God and time? | GotQuestions.org

The Lord does not count time as we do. He is above and outside of the sphere of time. God sees all of eternity's past and future. He is timeless, he is ever-present. He is eternally always. A second is no different from an eon; a billion years pass like seconds to the eternal God.

God, Time, and Eternity - Time - CS Lewis Society of California

God’s eternal quality is often misunderstood. It is often thought that God exists outside of time, that God is timeless. However, God is not timeless. God is eternally God, not in his being, but in himself. When we say that God is eternally God, we mean that he is forever God.

What is the relationship between God and time? | GotQuestions.org

The Lord does not count time as we do. He is above and outside of the sphere of time. God sees all of eternity's past and future. He is timeless, he is ever-present. He is eternally always. A second is no different from an eon; a billion years pass like seconds to the eternal God.

God, Time, and Eternity - Time - CS Lewis Society of California

God’s eternal quality is often misunderstood. It is often thought that God exists outside of time, that God is timeless. However, God is not timeless. God is eternally God, not in his being, but in himself. When we say that God is eternally God, we mean that he is forever God.

What is the relationship between God and time? | GotQuestions.org

The Lord does not count time as we do. He is above and outside of the sphere of time. God sees all of eternity's past and future. He is timeless, he is ever-present. He is eternally always. A second is no different from an eon; a billion years pass like seconds to the eternal God.

God, Time, and Eternity - Time - CS Lewis Society of California

God’s eternal quality is often misunderstood. It is often thought that God exists outside of time, that God is timeless. However, God is not timeless. God is eternally God, not in his being, but in himself. When we say that God is eternally God, we mean that he is forever God.